

With the increase of competitive event venue industry advertising, maintaining our share of the market is paramount.

Our goal as an event venue is to obtain and maintain "First Priority" awareness of our services through our marketing and advertising .

Consistent usage of our identity through promotional and signage programs will ensure that our customers receive the same message throughout our marketing and advertising .

The importance of the correct and consistent use of our marks and logos cannot be overstated.

While the event venue industry is constantly changing, Our Identity remains the same and is critically important. Our Logo and Graphic Standards are among The Kirk House most valuable assets. In order to ensure we maintain exclusive rights and protect them from infringement, it is extremely important that they are used properly and consistently.

Frequent delivery of a consistent message is the best way to achieve "First Priority" awareness in the marketplace. "First Priority" awareness will greatly help to ensure a long and successful future for all of us.

NOTE: ANY USAGE NOT COVERED IN THIS IDENTITY MANUAL MUST BE PRE-APPROVED BY THE KIRK HOUSE MANAGEMENT.

IDENTIFICATION ELEMENTS

TRADE NAMES, TRADEMARKS, ASSOCIATION MARKS, AND LOGO TYPES

Our Trade Name and Trademark (Word Marks) are represented by the very same name. The difference between the two is how to use them. Trade Names identifies our company and Trademark as a Word Mark identifies our speciality products or services.

AT ALL TIMES WHEN THE The Kirk House NAME IS USED, THE "T", "K" AND "H" MUST ME CAPITALIZED AND. WITHOUT EXCEPTION!

TRADE NAME

Our Trade Name identifies the specific origin of speciality products and services. It is the name under which our facility is known in the marketplace.

Our names shall be known as:
"The Kirk House."

TRADEMARKS

Our Trademark appears on our speciality products, advertising, signage, etc. to identify our speciality products and services. A Trademark that appears in headlines or text is called a Word Mark. A Trademark that appears as a distinct design element is called a Logo Type.

Our names shall be known as:
"The Kirk House."

LOGO TYPE OR LOGO

This is our Trade Name and Trademark embodied in the form of a distinctive lettering and design.

STAND ALONE LOGO DESIGN

LOCATION IDENTIFICATION

Specific rules govern the way to use the trademarks (Logos) in advertising, signage, apparel, etc. when including your association name.

TRADE NAME AND TRADEMARKS (WORD MARKS)

TRADE NAME

Our "The Kirk House" name needs protection from loss. This happened to Aspirin and Thermos. The Aspirin and Thermos names began as a company trade name. The names became generic because everyone referred to the product as an aspirin or a thermos, thus the companies trade name was lost.

The "The Kirk House" trade name is the preferred use of the name to refer to our facility. When "The Kirk House" appears in either headline or text, it must always be used in the same typestyle as the surrounding copy. The first letter of the name, "T", "K", and the "B" must always be capitalized.

TRADE NAME EXAMPLE USAGE:

A new event at The Kirk House opens today.

The Kirk House announces a new event.

TRADEMARK AS A WORD MARK

Using our name in a method that refers to our services is called the word mark and it requires a different type of protection. When the "The Kirk House" trademark appears in a headline or text the same requirements apply as if it were used as a Trade Name with the following exceptions:

- The trademark should be followed by a generic noun representing the product or service.
- A (®) at the upper-right corner at the first or most prominent use in every printed material.

Our Trademark must never be used as a noun, plural form, as a possessive, or linked with other words by punctuation or design. Our logo mark should never be used in place of the word mark in headlines or text.

TRADEMARK AS A WORD MARK USAGE:

The Kirk House entertains a new event tonight.
John Doe will have an event at The Kirk House.

BASIC LOGO STANDARDS TRADEMARK / DESIGN MARK

A Trademark in text or a headline is called a Word Mark. When a Trademark is a distinctive designed Logo Type it is called a Design Mark.

Our logos is the registered trademark of "The Kirk House."

The following mark should never be changed or modified from the policies and specifications as set forth in this manual. The (®) mark is to be considered an element of the mark. It is always included and always placed as shown. The "The Kirk House" Design Mark / Logo has been designed specifically for the use of The Kirk House.

These samples show the only authorized way to display the logos when they are going to stand on their own. Keep in mind that regardless of the size of the displayed logo, the position and placement of the graphic must remain constant and comply to "The Kirk House" standards.

The easiest and most efficient way to ensure that you have fulfilled your responsibilities with regard to presentation of the Logos, is to CONTACT THE KIRK HOUSE MANAGEMENT.

TRADEMARK AUTHORIZATION

TRADEMARK AUTHORIZATION

"The Kirk House" The most successful companies treasure their trademarks as their most valuable assets.

Our trademarks' and service marks' value and life span depend on each member's careful usage and protection of our marks.

In prior sections you are given specific requirements with regards to Design Marks' and Word Marks' usage. If you comply with those requirements, our Design Marks and Word Marks will be protected.

PROTECTING OUR MARKS

Our trade name and trademarks are constantly at risk of loss through careless or improper use. Each store is responsible for the protection of our trade name and trademark. When using a trade name or word mark in text or a headline use the requirements as set forth in prior sections.

Some other ideas to protect our marks:

- Distinguish our trade name and trademarks from surrounding words in a headline or text.
- Use the registration symbol when using a word mark.
- Never change, modify, combine, or translate our word mark or the visual appearance of a design mark.
- Respect the trademarks of others.
- Make sure the only parties using our trade names, trademarks, word marks, service marks, or design marks are a member of the "The Kirk House" management or are licensed to do so.

TRANSLITERATION

Translation is prohibited, but you may transliterate our trade name, trademarks, service marks, word marks, and /or our design marks.

INFRINGEMENT AND MISUSE

* A social network service is defined as an online service, platform, or site that focuses on building and reflecting of social networks or social relations among people, e.g., who share interests and/or activities. A social network service essentially consists of a representation of each user (often a profile), his/her social links, and a variety of additional services. Most social network services are web based and provide means for users to interact over the internet, such as e-mail and instant messaging. Although online community services are sometimes considered as a social network service. In a broader sense, social network service usually means an individual-centered service whereas online community services are group-centered. Social networking sites allow users to share ideas, activities, events, and interests within their individual networks.

The main types of social networking services are those which contain category places (such as former school year or classmates), means to connect with friends (usually with self-description pages) and a recommendation system linked to trust. Popular methods now combine many of these, with Facebook and Twitter widely used worldwide; MySpace and LinkedIn being the most widely used in North America; [1] Nexopia (mostly in Canada);[2] Bebo,[3] Hi5, Hyves (mostly in The Netherlands), StudiVZ (mostly in Germany), iWiW (mostly in Hungary), Tuenti (mostly in Spain), Nasza-Klasa (mostly in Poland), Decayenne, Tagged, XING,[4] Badoo[5] and Skyrock in parts of Europe;[6] Orkut and Hi5 in South America, India and Central America;[7] and Friendster, Mixi, Multiply, Orkut, Wretch, renren and Cyworld in Asia and the Pacific Islands and Twitter, Orkut and Facebook in India.
